

Name(s)

Class

Date

Directions

For the type of search engine that was assigned to you, draw the website’s logo and answer the following questions. (The word “hits” refers to the results from a search.)

Cut and paste or draw the logo of your search site above.

Explore

1. This site is generally known as a (check one):

Search engine

Directory

Meta-search engine

2. What other kinds of information or activities are on the home page of this search site?

Search

1. Try a quick search for “World Cup 2010.” What kinds of information are provided on the results page? Print out the first page of results, or copy the first five results on a separate sheet of paper.

2. Now try “World Cup 2010 United States-Ghana match.” What kinds of information are provided on the results page? Print out the first page of results, or copy the first five results on a separate sheet of paper.

3. How do your results compare to the results found by other groups?

4. Describe one thing you like (or don't like) about the type of results you found:

5. Describe one thing you like (or don't like) about the search site another group found:
